ALL are welcome here. Worship is a series of invitations; accept only those you feel called to accept. Feel free to change language in a respectful manner if it helps the hour to be more worshipful for you.

The season of Lent is a 40-day period of reflection in preparation for a remembrance of Christ's death and resurrection.

As a gentle reminder, please only read aloud what is italicized and bold. (Anything else indicates a time to listen and reflect on the spoken word.)

Call to Worship and Call to Confession by the Rev. Teri Peterson, prepared for the Bible Worm Collective in which Pastor Amy is a member.

Finding the Way to the Cross

Call to Worship

We are stepping into the maze today, seeking the way to the cross.

We are uncertain and a bit afraid.

We will put one foot in front of the other, and keep moving forward.

But what if we hit a dead end?

We will turn around and seek another path.

Am I alone?

Did you know there are paragraphs beneath each hymn in our hymnal explaining their origins or interesting features? May be worth checking out!

No, never, we are in this maze together and we have Jesus right here with us.

Does Jesus know the way?

Jesus IS the way. Keep going.

Let us worship God.

Song | I Want Jesus to Walk with Me

Glory to God #775

Call to Confession

We are quick to identify sin in others.

We are slow to identify sin in ourselves.

Let us know look inside ourselves and seek the strength of God that we might be able to repent and experience the joy of God's forgiveness.

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, like Martha and Mary, we confess that we have doubted your timing and your power.

We confess to standing before the sealed stones of our lives, overwhelmed by fear and hopelessness, believing that death or limitation is the end of the story.

We have forgotten that you are the Resurrection and the Life, choosing instead to rely on our own understanding.

We admit to doubting that you can bring life out of the graves we have created for ourselves.

Forgive us for our lack of faith, for our fear of the stench of our own sins, and for our failure to believe in your power to make all things new.

Lord, in your mercy, roll away the stone of our unbelief, and call us out of the darkness into your marvelous light.

Raise us up from our apathy and fear, that we may walk in the freedom of your grace, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Silent Prayers of Confession

...In Jesus' name.

Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Though from our perspective the path is winding and unclear,

Jesus sees from above and is the way.

Jesus has cleared the way for us.

Friends, believe the good news,

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Thanks be to God.

Light (v. 1 only)

Glory to God #377

Passing the Peace

... The Peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

THE WORD

Prayer of Preparation

Jesus, you are the Word

and we pray that we might encounter you in the words of scripture today. Amen.

ABOUT OUR FOCAL IMAGE

Our Lenten image shows a maze in the foreground with a cross seen through fog in the distance, reflecting that our Lenten journey will not be a straight and simple march to the cross.

In our readings from John's gospel, we'll encounter Jesus opening the eyes of his friends and disciples to who he is and what he is calling them to do, and then the cowardice of Peter's denial of Jesus and of Pilate's giving in to the crowd's call for crucifixion.

We invite you to consider your own faith journey and what Lent means to you as we come to the cross together over the next few weeks.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

The Presbyterian Church (USA) explains that this Special Offering is "interpreted during Lent and received on Palm Sunday and/or Easter Sunday in response to Christ's call to ministries of compassion for the most vulnerable around the world." Please be on the lookout for materials about this Special Offering and give as you are able.

UPCOMING WORK PARTY

Many hands make light work! Stay tuned for information about a parking lot work party (tentatively slated for a Saturday before Easter Sunday) and please plan to stop by and help. This work ensures that the grounds near our building safe, inviting, and appealing to the humans and animal inhabitants alike for years to come.

Thoughts from Pastor Amy (Written February 19th)

Dear friends in Christ,

Already in my short time as your Bridge Pastor, I have felt welcomed, prayed for, and encouraged in this ministry. Last Sunday's celebration of Pastor Sarah was a wonderful tribute to her nine years as your pastor. It is clear that we will all be grieving in large and small ways the ending of Pastor Sarah's time among us. Please hold her and her family in your prayers as they move through the various transitions her new call entails.

Lent began on Ash Wednesday, February 18th. It is the season of the church year in which we prepare to celebrate Easter. We do so by first recognizing our own sinfulness, our own frailty, our own dependence upon God. And alongside this, like two sides of the same coin, we celebrate God's invitation to ALL to join in the feast Christ has prepared. The latter scripture we used as our focal point, during the three-congregation Ash Wednesday service led by Pastor Susan Tindall and held in our chapel. This Sunday's sermon will be given by the Rev. Robin Garvin, a retired pastor who serves the Presbytery in a part-time role supporting congregations in transition.

My work as your Bridge Pastor also began this week. A Bridge Pastor shepherds the congregation and Session through that short period of time between the departure of the former pastor and the arrival of the next pastoral leader. Along with assistance from the Presbytery, I will be guiding the Session's discernment of the skills and gifts they foresee being most helpful in their next pastor. That process will lead to a job description, posting, and interviews. It is usual that this process takes 2-3 months, so my initial contract with you is from February 16th through May 17th. The contract can be ended early if the next pastoral leader is available to start sooner than May 18th. It can also be extended, with the permission of all parties (Session, Bridge Pastor, and Presbytery.)

Another thing to know about bridge pastors is that we are usually no more than half-time. My contract is for half-time. That means that I will be preaching half the Sundays, though assisting in worship on most of the other Sundays. The Session and I have set expectations regarding the items that Pastor Sarah routinely did as Pastor. We now have a list that shows what items will be covered by me, what will be covered with the assistance of others, and what few things will be set aside until the next pastoral leader arrives.

Starting in March, you can find me in the church office on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. I will be working from home on Thursdays. Feel free to contact me through the phone number in the church directory, by email, or through the church office. I am available for pastoral care, but this is one of those items that I am sharing with others. The Deacons and Pastor Emeritus Patty Campbell-Schmitt will also be assisting. Please contact me to arrange for pastoral care.

With prayers for the needs of the congregation and the world,

Pastor Amy
